

HOUSE CRUSHED BY FALLING WALL; TWO ARE KILLED

Four Others Injured When
Mass of Masonry Buried
Victims While Asleep.

SEATTLE, Nov. 8.—The side of a four-story brick storehouse on North Front street collapsed early today and crashed through the roof frame dwelling house of John Hughes, immediately adjoining, as a result of which two persons are dead, three persons fatally injured and another seriously hurt.

The dead are: John Hughes, fifty-nine years old, a stockbroker, whose body was found in the ruins, and Eva Doty, five years old, who died while being taken to a hospital. Those injured are: Mrs. Henry Doty, mother of the dead girl; Mrs. John Hughes, wife of the dead man; Margaret Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, and Irene Doty, sister of the dead girl. The first three named are likely to die.

The building was known as the Loring Storehouse and was used for storing bales of raw and tobacco. First reports said that an explosion had caused the accident, but it was later shown that faulty construction of the building had probably caused the collapse. It is said that the building, which was comparatively new, was built of brick that had been in another building and that the foundations were insecure, being built on an ash dump. City Building Inspector Clark today started an investigation. Michael Greenberg, one of the partners of the warehouse, declared the building was dynamited, but declined to submit himself further. Firemen and others who have examined the ruins in daylight say there are no evidences of an explosion.

All the dead and injured were sleeping when the crash came. Mrs. Doty and her children were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, for the night. The wall of the warehouse slipped in a diagonal direction and tumbled down on the house with a crash. The awakened people thought it was an explosion. The house was crushed and bales of raw and other goods piled on top of the heap.

An adjoining house occupied by several families narrowly escaped a similar fate. The doors were blocked by falling masonry and brick and the twenty or more persons within, aided by firemen, made their escape through windows.

GARAGE BLAZE SCARES PATIENTS IN HOSPITAL

Three Machines Destroyed and Man
Scorched When Chauffeur
Drops Match.

Prompt work of doctors and nurses prevented a panic in the German Hospital at 7 A. M. today, when fire did $500 damage in the Fordville Garage, across the street at No. 125 East Twenty-seventh street. At the first sound of the engine the telephone boy in the hospital woke Dr. Kortum and all the doctors, and they went from ward to ward assuring the patients there was no danger.

The garage fire started while Harry Magnus, a chauffeur, was filling the gasoline tank of his car. A match he had lighted to look at the machinery fell in a pool of gasoline and set the machine afire.

Sam Kronenberg and Charles Wold, who own the garage and live over it, tumbled down, and in assisting them to proceed the street car Kronenberg was hurled about the face and neck. Three machines were destroyed, one of them a new car just bought for $1,500 by Max Kronenberg, a brother of the proprietor. The other machines were too far back to be touched by the flames. The fire went through the ceiling in the Kronenberg apartment and did $300 damage before the firemen had it under control.

BOULDER WRECKS TRAIN. Engine Hits Obstruction Half Mile from Chicago

LA CROSSE, Wis., Nov. 8.—Passenger train No. 14 on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad was wrecked near Genoa, Wis., today when the locomotive struck a boulder half the size of a boxcar which had been dislodged by recent rains and rolled down the bluff onto the track. Engineer James M. Pratt, La Crosse, was possibly fatally injured. His jaw was broken and the side of his face crushed in. Four track laborers and a negro porter also were injured, not fatally.

First reports of the accident indicated that the wrecked train was the Oriental Limited, the coast train which runs a little behind No. 14. The coast train, however, was not harmed, but was delayed several hours.
